Thank you for your generous giving to Whosoever Club last Sunday! We raised $469 for our outreach ministry for families in the Woodman Ave and Bonnewood Neighborhoods.

We're excited to announce a new discipleship opportunity beginning this Tuesday, April 23rd at 6 pm at the Ashtabula campus. Andy Milliken will facilitate Tuesday Sermon Talks. Come join us as we discuss the previous Sunday sermon, break it down and apply it to everyday living. All ages are welcome!

Our multi-family yard sale at the Geneva parsonage (next door to the Geneva campus) is this Friday, April 26th from 9-2 pm; the church office will be closed that day. If you enjoy going to yard sales, we hope you come out to see us, and find something interesting to take home!

The scavenger hunt in March was a huge success; our next adventure is next Sunday, April 28th from 2-3 pm, beginning at the Ashtabula campus. Get your team together (how many you can fit in your car). Sign-up at the Welcome Center or EVENTS page at theridgenaz.org.

The Ashtabula County Concerts of Prayer Breakfast is Friday, May 3rd at Eagleville Bible Church at 7 am. Tickets are $12 each if you'd like to attend. Please visit the EVENTS page at theridgenaz.org for a link to purchase tickets.

All Daughters of the King Mexican Fiesta Luncheon will be Saturday, May 4th at noon at the Geneva campus. We'll have a taco/salad bar and more texmex favorites! Tickets are $5 and are available through Sunday, April 28th; please see Robin Terbizan or Cheryl Connors to purchase. If you'd like to help with decorations, join us at the Ashtabula campus at 11:30 am on Thursday, April 25th. For more information contact the church office.

Thanks to everyone who helped with Big Serve yesterday by assisting with the Ashtabula City Clean-up day! Your great attitude and hard work is appreciated and made a difference in our community!
